Schoolmen Approve Legal Aid

The school committee Monday night voted to obtain special counsel for the case brought against them by colleague William L. Lane.

Lane, offered an amendment to the original motion presented by Committeeman John G. Wragg, asking that he be provided with counsel as well, but did not receive a second.

Wragg's motion seconded by Committeeman George Olesen will provide special counsel on the issue of violation of the state Open Meeting Law.

Lane had brought the suit based on alleged secret sessions conducted by the other four members of the committee in April and May.

Monday night, Olesen, Wragg and Dr. Francis E. Griggs, chairman approved the retaining of special counsel due to the complexity of the case.

Committeeman Lane said

Democrats To Contest In Primary

There will be only one contest in the primary election in September for the all-Andover representative seat.

Seeking the Democrat nomination will be Atty. Gerald Cohen and Phillip J. Coppola, according to nomination papers filed with Town Clerk Elden R. Salter by the deadline Tuesday afternoon.

Unopposed will be Republican Roger W. Collins and Independent John W. Cronin.

The state primary is scheduled for Sept. 10.

The Joys Of That Last Day

Nothing beats that final day of school and John Horgan and Laurie Adams let loose their enthusiasm as they leave the Sanborn school for their summer vacation today.

Silverman Departure Prelude?

By Linda S. Corbett

Gerald Silverman, assistant Andover High principal, has resigned to take on a full principalship in Georgetown, and indications are that other administrators may soon follow him out of the Andover system.

His resignation also leaves two assistant principal vacancies at the high school. Benjamin Dimlich retired from the other spot earlier this year.

Silverman, who has been with the system 13 years - three as assistant principal, will be principal of Georgetown's Junior-Senior High School. He had been one of 80 candidates for the $20,000-plus job.

Last week a report surfaced that Silverman had been denied a merit pay increase by the school committee because he allowed William Becker, demoted English department head, to speak at high school graduation. The increase would have brought his salary here up to $19,000.

At the same April 10 meeting at which Becker was demoted, while being granted tenure as an English teacher, Silverman himself was narrowly granted tenure as assistant principal. He already had tenure as a teacher.

Superintendent Kenneth R. Seifert this week praised Silverman as a "24-hour-a-day administrator" who couldn't be easily replaced.

Seifert said he was "professionally pleased" that Silverman had a principalship, "because he is of that caliber."

Personally, Seifert said, he was saddened to see Silverman go, "because he is a very firm and fair man and we need those kinds of people today in the Town of Andover."

Seifert added that he thought

Sidewalk Bazaar On Weekend

PREPARING. Frank McBride posts one of the banners noting the annual Sidewalk Bazaar days scheduled for this weekend. Bargains and entertainment will again be the feature of the popular event conducted by the Andover Chamber of Commerce.

The streets of Downtown Andover Center come alive this weekend as the Andover Chamber of Commerce sets up shop on Main Street.

Charles Heseltine, Sidewalk Bazaar Chairman, has put together the largest program of business and community activity to be conducted during this year's celebration of Sidewalk Bazaar Days.

Over 25 local community organizations will set up and man booths along the length of Main Street. Main Street from Elm Square to Punchard Avenue will be roped off to traffic; as bargain hunters and connoisseurs converge upon the area during the two day festival. Retail merchants will also offer exceptional values at outdoor sales tables.

Special events for the entire family will be conducted during the two days. Music for the summer festival will be provided by the famous Clan McPherson Bagpipe Band as they parade on Main Street from 7 to 9 p.m. on Friday. A square dance exhibition will be provided by the Twilight Twirlers in

Police Capture Escaped Prisoner

Andover police, with the assistance of Lawrence and the State Police captured an escaped, armed murderer in a Main street Andover house early Saturday morning.

Albert J. Vaillancourt, 32, was taken into custody at 1:37 a.m. Saturday at 131 Main street, an apartment house. He had escaped from a North Carolina prison where he was serving a life sentence for murder.

He was arraigned in Lawrence District Court Saturday morning on a charge of receiving a stolen gun and carrying same without authority. He was held in $20,000 bail and the charges continued for hearing until July 10.

Information supplied Andover police and Lawrence Patrolman Dominic Armano led police to the area shortly after 1 a.m.

His location had been given to police by a roommate who had a falling out with Vaillancourt. Lt. Raymond Collins of the Andover police received the information.

Police found the apartment vacant on their arrival at the scene. Andover Inspector Donald Howard, along with State Troopers Anthony Pizzo and Frank Baran remained in the apartment until about 1:30 a.m. when the red sports car driven by Vaillancourt drove up and parked near an unmarked cruiser.

Vaillancourt had a .22 calibre pistol in his hand as he opened the door to the second floor apartment. Trooper Baran disarmed the escaped prisoner and placed him under arrest.

Involved in the arrest were ten Andover officers, under the direction of Sgt. James Johnson, Patrolman Armano and Troopers Baran and Pizzo.

Police in Bar Harbor, Maine were questioning Vaillancourt on an assault case there. He was reported to have been in that area recently.

Venus Puts On Summer Show

Summer begins June 21, when the sun reaches its highest point in the sky. It is during this month that we enjoy the longest days, with about fifteen hours of daylight.

The month of July will feature two impressive celestial events. On the morning of July 17, the moon the second brightest object in the sky, will pass in front of Venus, the third brightest object, blocking it from view for 51 minutes. This rare event will begin 22 minutes before sunrise, at 4:57 a.m., and continue until 5:48 a.m., when Venus reappears on the other side of the moon. As the moon crosses Venus, the planet will disappear behind the upper left illuminated edge of the moon and pop out again on the upper right edge of the darkened moon.

Drugs, Cash Taken In Holdup

Drugs and cash were taken in an armed holdup in Shawshen last Thursday afternoon.

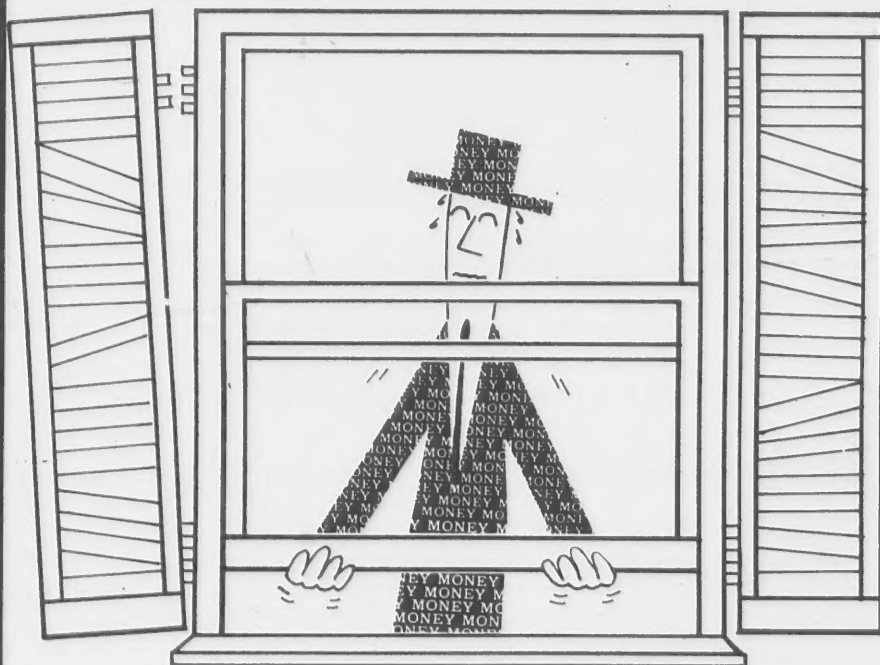

Shortly after 3 p.m., three men entered Upon's pharmacy in Shawshen Square and ordered Francis A. LeLacheur, to the floor after pulling a gun.

They grabbed drugs and cash and fled in a car which was found later about three blocks from the store with the motor running.

Det. Sgt. Robert Parker reported the men probably left in a waiting car on William street where the abandoned vehicle was found.

Examine Course Shuffling

Supt. of Schools Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert was given approval to proceed with staffing positions required under the new Chapter 766 program at a special meeting of the school committee Monday night.

Dr. Seifert explained to the committee that he had asked for the special session in order that he might discuss the program with the staff before the end of the school year.

Implementing the plans for the Chapter 766 program will cost $116,800, Dr. Seifert told the committee, but some of the costs can be absorbed within the budget, through personnel transfer. In addition, the state will be providing the town with $67,800 in front money for the new program.

If all funds are received and the transfers effected, there could be a surplus of $4,300, the superintendent noted.

Needed to initiate the new program which will care for pupils with special needs and disabilities, will be a pupil personnel administrator, $19,000; a secretary, $7,500; home assessors, $13,000; two chairmen, $32,000; two school psychologists, $33,000 and an early childhood resource teacher, $12,300.

Supt. Seifert was asking the committee to proceed with posting of the positions and seeking to fill them in order to implement the new state directed program. The school committee gave him conditional approval to proceed.

Supt. Seifert also reported to the committee on the number of courses being dropped and the students involved in line with the committee's policy of no additional personnel.

He noted that there would be 128 students dropped from science programs at the high school, there would be one teacher short in the mathematics department and 176 students in the industrial arts department can not be placed.

An additional instructor would also be needed in the foreign language department, he said.

The report was in preliminary form, indicating the problem areas and the superintendent said he would discuss the matter in more detail at a later meeting.

Dr. Francis E. Griggs, chairman, told the superintendent that possibly some juggling and shuffling could be done to accommodate these students.

Committeeman John G. Wragg said that it was anticipated that this problem would result as the so-called crunch (the increased enrollments) moved through at the secondary level.

Committeeman William L. Lane expressed the feeling that this information should have been presented to the public at town meeting, or as the budget was being presented, if in fact, the problem was anticipated.

Wragg said that if the student enrollment stays the same, at about 6,300, then the problem should be able to be worked out.

In reply to Lane's contention that the problem was not known or made public, Griggs said, "then you have been listening with muffers."

George E. Olesen, Jr., said he felt it was an administrative problem and did not have to be brought to the school committee, to which Dr. Seifert replied that he felt the committee members should be aware of these things, since they would probably be getting telephone calls about the matter.

Dr. Seifert agreed with Dr. Griggs that a closer look at the matter and some possible reassignment could take care of some of the problem. The matter will be presented at a subsequent meeting of the board in finer detail.

Throughout the evening cartoon characters and the large Yellow Bird will patrol the streets to the delight of the children. The entire family can dine out that evening as the Beta Sigma Phi - Xi Sigma

Also on Saturday, the Matson Academy of Karate will put on a demonstration of Uechi-ryu Karate in front of Town Hall at 1 p.m.

Silverman

there were "a number of administrators who are out to improve themselves." That can either be done by moving inside the system or, he said, if one no longer feels he can fulfill his professional goals here, by looking elsewhere.

"We've had some very trying times and this takes its toll," he said.

"Some people are raising the question of whether they want to work here anymore or not."

Silverman, who was social studies department head at West Jr. High before moving on to the high school, is a native of Lawrence. He received his bachelor's degree from Ithaca College and his master's from Salem State, and taught in New York State for four years before coming to Andover.

He and his wife Myrna, and their three children, all in Andover schools, live in Shawheen.

As assistant principal, Silverman had had basic responsibility for the departments of English, social studies, guidance, industrial arts, physical education and athletics, music, library and media at the high school. He also supervised junior and senior classes, clubs, discipline, cafeteria and grounds, public relations and educational involvement.

Dimlich had overseen the departments of mathematics, science, foreign language, business and art, in addition to the sophomore class, discipline, main office and guidance office procedures, buses and federal programs.

The two men shared responsibility for the student handbook, rules and regulations for both students and faculty, teacher orientation, parent organizations, field trips, community resources, graduation, awards assembly and custodians.

Scale Insects

Scale insects are spongers. They board and lodge with their hosts - trees, shrubs, plants. By sucking plant juices from leaf and stem they can cause leaves to yellow, twigs and branches to die and have been known to kill trees.

June, says Robert A. Bartlett, Jr., is the time to look for these pests, especially on evergreens, and to control many of them.

Control can be achieved when just-hatched young are crawling and have not settled down for the rest of their lives. Some later develop hard shells that are impervious to sprays that should be used in June-contact insecticides.

Citizens Group Meets Monday

The newly formed citizens' committee to study and discuss Andover schools will meet again Monday, at 8 p.m., in Memorial Hall Library. Any person who feels strongly about the schools - on any side of the issues - is invited, a spokesman said.

The subcommittees, formed at the June 3 open meeting when the group was formed, have met and will be reporting Monday on their long-range study objectives.

Dr. Matthew Cushing will again serve as moderator.

Interested persons are also invited to join the study subcommittees. The topics and chairmen, include: Curriculum, Priscilla Bartle; Discipline, Mrs. Henry Young; Division of Responsibility, Melvin Miller; Finance, Saul Flieder; Goals, Mrs. Joan Gillatt; Personnel policies, Ms. Michael Sandler; Politics, Ron Gomes; and Testing policies and evaluation, Robin Moseley.

Legal Aid

that he felt it was an inappropriate use of taxpayers funds to obtain the special counsel and added that since he was paying for counsel out of his own pocket, then the town should also supply him with counsel.

But the majority failed to see Lane's point.

When Lane noted that he felt the costs would probably find that the majority of the committee had acted wrongly, Dr. Griggs said it may also be determined that the entire matter might prove to be a misuse of town funds from the beginning.

The action this allows the school committee members to use other than Town Counsel Alfred Daniels in the case which is due for hearing next Monday in Salem Superior Court.

Lane's suit contends the other members of the school committee failed to keep records at secret meetings, and improper discussion was included in the executive sessions.

Dr. Griggs feels that the case could be precedent setting and that someone with expertise in the open meeting law should be acting as counsel on the matter.

Griggs feels that the decision handed down by the courts, could determine how business of local boards is to be conducted.

Playground Program Offered

For those who are not familiar with summer playground activities for children, the Recreation / Community Schools Department has a full summer playground program at each of five areas: Shawsheen, Doherty, Sanborn and West Elementary schools and Ballardvale Playground.

This involves a full staff of counselors (leaders and supervisors) whose function is to involve children in grade K-6 in games, sports and other diversified activities. The program runs Monday - Friday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In addition to this full daily program, enrichment classes are offered at all of these locations. Specialists travel to each area and children who have signed up for a particular class leave the playground program to participate in the enrichment activity.

While a general registration for enrichment classes was held last week at all playground areas, anyone who still wishes to register for these classes may sign up at the Recreation / Community Schools office, 36 Bartlett St. Booklets listing all courses may be obtained at the office or at Memorial Hall Library.

Children who are not interested in enrichment courses may register for the playground on July 1. Though registrations for enrichment classes will also be accepted on July 1, many classes are already closed and others are rapidly being filled.

Photos On Exhibit At Gallery

Work Of Janet Ikenberry

"Recent Work By Eight New England Photographers" opens at the Addison Gallery of American Art on June 14.

This exhibition assembled by the Addison Gallery, attempts to represent some of the many directions currently being explored by area photographers and includes the work of John Adams, Wayne Barron, Kathie Florsheim, Donald Grey, Janet Ikenberry, Richard Merritt, Guy Russell and Roger Williams.

These photographers come from different parts of New England and have widely varying approaches to the medium: cameras employed vary in size from 35mm to 8x10, as well as a wide-view camera; prints include black and white, color, and Polaroid images; literal, ambiguous, and manipulative working methods are all represented.

John Adams' accomplishments include the authorship of three books on bottle collecting as well as many exhibits in the northeast. His work has been seen at the DeCordova Museum in Lincoln; the George Eastman House, Rochester, N.Y.; the Underground Gallery and the Lever House, both in New York City; the Lamont and Currier Galleries, both in New Hampshire; and at Symphony Hall, Boston. Wayne Barron studied at New York University and the Boston Museum School. Currently he is working with large-format cameras; he is also teaching Art in Melrose.

Kathie Florsheim, who recently received her M.F.A. from the Rhode Island School of Design, has exhibited at the University of Iowa, the Focus Gallery in San Francisco, the Neikrug Gallery in New York City, and several museums and galleries in this area, including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Fogg Museum, and the Clarence Kennedy Gallery. She is also a member of the Polaroid Collection group.

Donald Grey teaches photography at both Tufts University and the Boston Museum School; he is presently working in color, on themes which he defines as Images of Man, Monuments of Man, and the Magic Theater.

Janet Ikenberry, who studied at the University of Arizona and recently moved to Massachusetts, has exhibited at the 247 Gallery in Salem; her work includes satirical images, sequences, and photographs dealing with "moments...indicating present, future, and maybe past." Richard Merritt, well known for his color photography, is Associate Professor of the Arts at the University of New Hampshire. His work has been exhibited at the Kodak Pavilion, New York City, the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Art, and the Metropolitan Museum; in 1967 the University Photographers Association named him Photographer of the Year. He has received grants to explore color printing and the creative potentials of Polacolor; currently he is the recipient of a grant to investigate non-silver processes. Guy Russell, who studied photography with Ansel Adams, Minor White, Jerry Uelsmann, and Paul Caponigro, has exhibited at the Panopticon Gallery in Boston, the Worcester Art Museum, the Polaroid Gallery in Cambridge, and the DeCordova Museum. Work in this exhibition was done on a trip across the United States in the Fall of 1973 and includes both black and white and color images.

Roger Williams, who received an M.F.A. from the University of Nebraska and has studied at the Art Institute of Chicago, is now teaching photography at Bradford College. He writes about his work: "These images represent confrontations with people and places that seemed to uniquely fit the wider vision of the 140 degree camera...The elongated slot that the camera carves out of the environment offers a new challenge to the mind's eye."

The public is invited to an opening reception of Friday, June 14, from 3 to 5 p.m. The Addison Gallery of American Art, on the campus of Phillips Academy, Andover, is open free to the public from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday; Sundays from 2:30 - 5 p.m. During August the Addison Gallery will be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays only. The exhibition continues through Aug. 30.

Troop 102 Places High In Camporee

Boy Scout Troop 102 participated in the annual North Essex Spring Camporee held at Camp Onway in Raymond, N.H.

In view of the fact that this troop has been organized only since April 8 of this year, their achievement of coming in fifth out of 34 troops attending the Camporee was remarkable. Troop 102 has received special congratulations from William M. Willetts, North Essex Council Commissioner, and Mark Manley of the North Essex Council of Boy Scouts.

The boys also received two third place ribbons for the Scoutcraft activities held at the camporee.

The troop had only one previous camping experience before the Camporee. This was at Sebago Lake State Park over the Memorial Day Weekend. The weather at this encampment presented a challenge to experienced campers and especially to the novices of a newly organized group working as a camping unit for the first time.

The sponsors, Faith Lutheran Church and Bancroft School PTO, Scoutmaster Lane Porter, and the adult advisors are very proud of the group spirit and enthusiasm the boys have shown.

Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farr, a swimming party was held at Heritage Green swimming pool on June 6. Again a great deal of spirit was exhibited in spite of cold swimming conditions.

Troop meetings continue at Bancroft School on Monday evenings at 6:45 through June 24. They will resume on Monday after Labor Day.

A number of the scouts are planning a one or two week stay at Camp Onway from July 14 to July 28.

The world's largest circus is coming to Andover!

The Clyde Beatty-Cole Brothers Circus will perform at the Andover High School grounds on Sunday, Aug. 4, with performances at 2 and 5:30 p.m.

The circus is coming under the auspices of the Andover PTO Advisory Council, a town-wide group that works with its member PTOs, to benefit the school children of Andover. The moneys will be used to benefit Council projects during the 1974-75 school year as well as the programs of participating PTOs.

The Clyde Beatty-Cole Brothers Circus is the world's largest tent circus and features sideshows, a menagerie, wild animals tamers, aerial acts and, of course, many many clowns. The main attraction is Dave Hoover, a protegee of the late Clyde Beatty, who performs with lions and tigers.

An essay contest for all Andover elementary school children will be run, under coordinator Mrs. Rachel Garcia, on the topic: "Why I Want to Ride the Elephant in the Opening Circus Parade," with the prize being the opportunity to ride an elephant in the opening parade in the 2 p.m. performance. The essays, not to exceed 250 words, should be submitted to Mrs. Garcia, Foster's Pond Road, prior to July 8.

At their meeting on Monday, June 17, the PTO Advisory Council members decided that the suggested theme for the coming school year will be "A Year of Sharing," which will include sharing of information on constructive programs and activities in the schools, including recognition in the media; publication of an Advisory Council newspaper; sponsorship of a program of extracurricular enrichment activities for Andover school children, including field trips, cultural events, special educational projects, music lessons, etc.; sponsorship of town-wide discussions on matters of educational concern; possible sponsorship of a town-wide school volunteer program; and a policy of assistance to the school committee in improving the quality of education in the town of Andover.

The PTO Advisory Council welcomes comments and suggestions from the public at any time on its program of serving the needs of Andover school children.

Down The Disposal

By Polly Bradley

Valuable things seem to have a habit of going down the disposal.

All the good spoons go down, one by one. Now we use an assortment of spoons with crunchy edges and folded handles.

My silver baby spoon went down, which my Mother had saved since my childhood. Luckily Mother sent it down herself, one day when she was visiting us, or I'd never be able to face her again.

I don't dare ever use my grandmother's baby spoon for fear it will follow mine into the great beyond.

I've never had any trouble with sending diamond rings, pearl pins, or emerald earrings down the disposal, I'm sorry to say, since I never had any in the first place.

But my disposal doesn't get the use it used to since I stopped sending garbage down it. Most of the garbage, anyway.

Garbage is another valuable thing that generally shouldn't go down the disposal.

Garbage ought to be out fertilizing the garden or adding to the compost heap.

Things like limp lettuce leaves and ancient worn-out celery tops can go into the compost heap. The smellier things can get buried in the garden (but please not oily things and meat and bones, or the dog may dig it right up again.)

Garbage turns into the most fantastic fertilizer, which turns into the most delightful dirt, which grows plump tomatoes and beans and radishes

Rec. Dept. To Offer Summer Film Program

Starting Friday, June 28, the Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department will present, in cooperation with C.D. Film Workshop of Boston, an eight-week summer film program at the Andover East Junior High School Auditorium. The joint project, titled the Aurora Cinema, will offer 17 feature films accompanied by selected short subjects. C.D. Film Workshop, a non profit educational organization incorporated in Boston in 1972, was originally founded as a filmmaker's co-operative offering a place for professional and student film makers to pool equipment and ideas. Learning workshops in film and still photography were organized by its members and offered to people and schools in the Roxbury community. The group in cooperation with community organizations has presented film and slide show presentations in the greater Boston area and in Norfolk, Concord and Walpole state prisons. C.D. Film Workshop members have made films for educational use on labor history, the roots of black music, water pollution control, and prison conditions.

The Aurora Cinema project will be headed by C.D. Film Workshop members Ted Reed, and Andover High School graduate and president of the organization, and Michele Gisser, a Boston filmmaker who initiated the group's still photography workshops for children. "After presenting film programs in Boston for community groups," Ted said, "I felt that a similar program for the Andover community would be a real recreational asset. As a high school student here I was well aware of the lack of things to do on summer nights, and a low-admission film program showing features that could entertain as varied an audience as is in Andover seemed the answer."

Both the Recreation / Community Schools Department and C.D. Film Workshop hope that if the summer project gains the support of the town that a year-round weekend film program can be offered starting this fall. "We hope to get some good two way communication open with the Andover community to see what kind of films they would like to have in this program," Ms. Gisser said. "It's important to have as much interaction and cooperation in a community serving project like this as possible, because that's the idea behind it in the first place."

Volunteers willing to act as ushers on any of the nights in the schedule are urged to the Andover Recreation / Community Schools Department weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Those interested in C. D. Film Workshop's activities can write them at 28 Fisher Avenue, Roxbury, Ma. 02120.

Shows start at 7:45 p.m. and end at 9:45 p.m. at the East Junior High auditorium.

New Test Program At College

Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, has developed a new program of pre-registration testing for all students entering the college for the first time. The testing program is designed to assess each student's basic skills in the areas of reading, verbal and written expression, and mathematics.

To complement the testing program and to assist students beginning their college careers to grow and develop in these vital areas, the basic freshman courses in Liberal Arts, Mathematics I and English Composition I, have been redesigned to fit individual need. English Composition I is divided into three course options to provide three different ways for a student to develop his ability to read and write. Each option is tailored to a different level of verbal skills. All options, if successfully completed, bring the student to the point where he or she is ready for English Composition II. A writing laboratory has been established for students with special needs.

The mathematics curricula also offers three alternate routes for the beginning student, including a special option for students whose mathematics background is especially weak.

The tests to be administered assess the students abilities in reading (comprehension of idea and detail, ability to make inferences) sentence structure, mathematics, integrated reasoning, preceptual speed and accuracy, and inductive reasoning. The test results are evaluated in small group meetings and each student is advised to register for the composition and math options best suited to his needs.

Development of the new option format has been an all-college effort involving personnel from the student service area, the office of the Dean of the College, Chairman of Academic Divisions and Departments, and the Curriculum Committee of the Academic Council. The new program will be implemented in September.

to take a 7-6 lead. Then with one out, a runner on second base and two strikes on the Tower Hill batter in the bottom of the sixth, the umpire called the game because of darkness. Under league rules, TH was awarded a 6-5 win.

The Andover protest revolves around the fact that the game started 10 minutes late because home team Tower Hill failed to supply a base umpire. Thus, 10 minutes of daylight was wasted and made it impossible for the regulation seven innings to be played.

Andover continues to hit the ball well, paced by Tom Coffey (.478), Brian Twomey (.455), Mark LaLonde (.444), Jeff Hubbell (.438), Gary Needham (.429), Thom Lawler (.407) and Dan Grams, .500 in limited service.

SLW Marathon

This 11-inning marathon was the longest game Andover has played in recent memory, and the device that finally broke things up was a series of well-placed bunts against 13-year-old reliever Nick Guerrera of SLW.

Andover righthander Mark LaLonde and SLW lefty Tom Hambelton hooked up in a brilliant pitcher's duel for 10 innings, but under league rules both were forced to leave the mound after the 10th.

LaLonde, who eventually got credit for the win, scattered eight hits (seven singles), struck out eight and walked just two during his stint. Only one of the runs he surrendered was earned.

Hambelton, who was not involved in the decision, permitted nine hits while fanning 16 and walking five.

Once Andover took the lead in the 11th, 13-year-old rightie Dave

Farrell came on for the final stanza and preserved the victory.

Fast Start
Both teams got off to a fast start by scoring two runs in the first inning.

Andover opened with successive singles by Thom Lawler and Mark LaLonde, and then Brian Twomey was safe on a fielder's choice to load the bases.

Tom Coffey followed by smacking a 3-1 pitch into center-field for a two-run single.

West came right back in the bottom of the inning. Two errors set the table, and successive singles by Hambelton and Tony D'Anna tied the game.

Both pitchers settled down and it remained 2-2 until the fifth, when the pesky Hambelton bounced an RBI single to left-field.

Andover tied it 3-3 a half-inning later. Dave Farrell slammed a one-out double down the left-field line, and he raced home when Thom Lawler's infield grounder went through the second baseman's legs.

Threats
The locals, who stranded 14 runners in all, threatened to end it in regulation time by loading the bases with two outs in the seventh on walks to John Lyons and Jeff Hubbell and an error.

However, the next batter popped out to the pitcher and extra innings were needed.

SLW got runners to second and third with two out in the ninth, but John Lyons made a fine pressure play on Joe Pappalardo's grounder to short to end the inning.

In the top of the 10th Andover loaded the bases again after singles by Greg Nicastro and Jeff Hubbell, along with an infield error. However, Hambelton bore down to strike out the next man.

In the 11th Tom Coffey led off with his third single of the game.

Bunts by Danny Hayes and John Lyons loaded the bases, and additional bunts by Greg Nicastro, Dave Farrell and Thom Lawler accounted for the runs.

SLW touched Dave Farrell for a meaningless run in the bottom of the 11th on a hit batsman, stolen base and hump-backed single.

Coffey bunted three and Lawler, LaLonde and Nicastro chipped in two apiece.

Greg Nicastro caught all 11 innings and joined shortstop John Lyons, first baseman Thom Lawler, leftfielder Tom Coffey and centerfielder Brian Twomey as the defensive standouts.

So. Law. East

Andover displayed the kind of never-say-die attitude that champs are made of against South Lawrence East, rallying for three runs in the bottom of the seventh to pull out the 5-4 win.

Left-hander Brian Twomey went the distance for the locals, allowing eight hits, fanning 11 and walking three.

Andover had a run cut down at the plate in the first. Dave Farrell, who took his lumps in the game, was hit by a pitch.

Twomey followed with a long double to left-centerfield, but when Farrell tried to score from first he was nipped on a perfect relay throw by Tony Grillo.

The locals struck for a pair of runs in the second. Mark LaLonde reached on an error, Jeff Hubbell singled sharply to left and then John Lyons clubbed a long RBI double to left-center.

A looping single to rightfield by Lawler plated the second run.

Twomey breezed through the first three innings, surrendering just one hit, but SLE warmed up to score twice in the fourth and fifth for a 4-2 edge.

A single to Tony Grillo, a run-scoring triple by Mike Wood and Rick Hanson's sacrifice fly did the damage in the fourth.

Singles by Steve Fosman and Bob Dutton, along with an infield error, loaded the bases in the fifth. Steve Clifton drilled a long two-run double to leftfield, but Chuck Prescott was nailed at home on a fine relay throw from third baseman Dan Hayes to catcher Gary Needham.

Gutty Comeback

Andover threatened in the bottom of the sixth, getting runners to second and third when Gary Needham was hit by a pitch and Jeff Hubbell belted a double.

However, SLE hurler Mike Wood bore down and fanned the next two batters to preserve the 4-2 lead.

SLE jammed the sacks with two out in the top of the seventh. Prescott singled, Clifton hammered another double and Grillo was intentionally walked.

Wood grounded out to Farrell at second base ending the danger.

Thom Lawler led off the bottom of the seventh by reaching on an error. With one out Brian Twomey ripped a sharp single to center and then Tom Coffey punched an RBI single to right to make it 4-3.

Mark LaLonde attempted to squeeze Twomey home from third, but Brian was tagged out at the plate for the second out.

Relief pitcher Scott Franz then walked Gary Needham on four pitches to load the bases.

He also walked Jeff Hubbell on four straight serves to force home the tying run, and pinchhitter Bob Zwicker walked on a 3-2 pitch to win the game.

Danny Hayes made a fine over-the-head running catch of a foul pop-up by Prescott, and Dave Farrell also starred defensively for Andover. Catcher Gary

Mets Clinch Division Title

Although the Mets have coasted to the NL crown, interest remains high in that division as all of the other five teams battle it out for the second-place playoff berth.

The Braves, Cards, Cubs, Giants and Pirates were all still in the running for that runner-up spot, and a chance to meet either the Red Sox or Yanks in the first annual second-place playoff.

Hitting star of the week was Cubs' catcher-pitcher Paul Farnham, who blasted a grand slam, three-run and two run homer. Two of Paul's clouts came in the same inning during a 10-2 win over the Cards.

Sharing the slugging spotlight were Robbie Wilkins and Billy Hall, both of the Red Sox, who slammed two homers each in the same game.

Robbie Wilkins started another consecutive hit streak, going 4-for-4 with homeruns in the first and second innings to drive in four runs. Billy Hall was 3-for-4, including a pair of homers and a double good for four runs.

Mike Anderson ripped a two-run double, John Cox had a two-bagger accounting for two markers, and Don Bliss was 1-for-1 with two stolen bases.

Newly-acquired 9-year-old Jeff Demers made an auspicious debut with a single, two walks, a stolen base, an RBI and two runs scored.

Billy Hall and Powers both went 2-for-4 with two RBIs for the Sox. Robbie Wilkins' two-run single in the fifth put the victors ahead for good, 7-6, as they overcame a 6-3 deficit.

Giants 18, Braves 10

The Giants erupted for the biggest single-game output by any team in the National League this season, capturing the 18-10 slugfest over the Braves.

Wayne Merola led the Giants' barrage with 4-for-5, while Bill Stahley and Robbie Robinson hammered long doubles and all three knocked in four runs apiece.

Winning pitcher Dave Leitch shared the mound chores with Dave Robinson and Jon Pelletier.

Defensively the standouts were shortstop Fred Foote and, when he wasn't pitching, centerfielder Dave Robinson.

The Braves received a run-scoring double from John Ingemi and key hits by Dave Barker and Bill Crabtree.

John Merola made several fine plays at shortstop for the losers, who sent Kenny Smith and Pete Crabtree to the mound.

Mets 5, Braves 3

The amazin' Mets made it official, winning the 1974 NL title with a come-from-behind 5-3 triumph over the Braves.

Trailing 3-0 entering the fourth inning, the Mets rallied for two in that frame and three more in the fifth.

Curveballer Pete Feeny collected his sixth pitching victory, allowing five hits, whiffing 13 and walking only two.

Pete also won his own game in the fifth, driving home the go-ahead runs with a double.

Chris O'Hara tripled and scored the winning run. Charlie Wiseman and Sean Burt rapped two-baggers and Doug Wilson singled.

The Braves' Dave Barker belted a double and single, while Bill Crabtree doubled. Third sacker John Merola and right-fielder Kenny Smith were defensive standouts.

Giants 4, Pirates 3

Ace chucker Bill Stahley scattered four hits, fanned nine and hurled shutout ball after the first inning to key the Giants' 4-3 win over the Pirates.

The result snapped a four-game Pirates' victory streak, and kept the race for the second-place playoff berth very much alive.

After falling behind 3-0 in the top of the first, the Giants chipped away for one run in the bottom of the first, fourth, fifth and sixth frames.

Stahley aided his own cause with a brace of safeties. Dave Robinson banged out a double, Jon Pelletier singled and Fred Foote was again a defensive whizz at shortstop.

Pirates' hurlers Jim DeTroia and Paul Bracken also led the losers' offense with solid two-baggers.

Braves 8, Cubs 4

The Braves broke a four-game losing skid, dumping the Cubs 8-4 behind the two-hit, 12-strikeout pitching of John Merola.

Dave Barker turned in a perfect 3-for-3 evening with a pair of doubles, while Brian Staid was also 3-for-3 with a two-bagger.

Pete Crabtree kept things consistent with a key double of his own, as the Braves struck for three runs in the first, two in the second and two in the sixth stanza.

Jason Powell and Paul Seeley lashed singles for the only Cubs' safeties. Catcher Paul Franham starred defensively, and Doug Royal was tagged with the mound setback.

Cubs 10, Cards 2

Paul Farnham stole all the thunder for the Cubs, who broke open a tight 1-1 battle by scoring nine runs in the fifth inning.

Farnham was the winning pitcher, twirling a two-hitter and fanning 12.

He keyed the nine-run uprising with a Little League rarity, belting a grand-slam homerun and two-run blast in the same inning.

Jason Powell lashed a brace of singles for the Cubs. Andy Billings hammered a double, while Glenn Demers and Paul Seeley stroked singles.

The only safeties against Farnham were a double by losing chucker Tim Richards, and a single by Jay Dilorio.

Cubs' third baseman Tom Walsh and shortstop Doug Royal starred defensively, as did Cards' catcher Scott LaRosa and shortstop Dilorio.

A Pattern

If there is any emerging pattern from recent school committee meetings, it would seem that just possibly some of the members may be willing to work with the administration in solving some problems.

This was evident this week at a special meeting of the committee, when Supt. of Schools Kenneth R. Seifert reported on the number of courses being dropped at the high school.

The reason, of course, is that the economy minded, have kept within budgets. There are not sufficient funds to provide the teachers available and in some cases enlarged enrollments does not permit proper disbursement of available professional personnel.

School committee members John Wragg and Chairman Francis E. Griggs feel that the pupils and teachers can be properly slotted with a little maneuvering.

Wragg feels that the "crunch" so-called has been anticipated by the committee as it moves through.

Committeeman William L. Lane feels the public should have been made aware of this situation when the budget was presented.

Committeeman George Olesen feels it to be an administrative problem which should not have to be brought before the school committee.

The report, submitted Monday, was preliminary in nature, and Dr. Seifert was asked to come up with further reports and recommendations at another meeting.

What is apparent, is that theory and reality do not mix as well as one might anticipate. In theory, the school population in total may remain constant, and the teaching staff likewise. But there is movement in the classes which must be anticipated. In short, and being a bit on the exaggerated side, a smaller second grade enrollment does not tend to free up a trigonometry teacher in the high school.

But a little working together on the matter, as suggested by Chairman Griggs, could possibly result in some accomplishment in providing the teachers where needed.

As for Mr. Olesen, who seems to be more interested in administrative harassment than attempting to provide a workable education system, we would suggest he lay aside the Ken Seifert pin cushion doll for a while and work toward understanding the problems, rather than creating them.

School's Out

You won't need reminders as of today that another school year has come to an end.

There will be the usual jubilation as the youthful scholars embark on a summer sojourn from the books and 'rigors' of their everyday pursuit of knowledge.

There is, however, a need to remind ourselves to be a little more cautious these days, as the youngsters pursue their summer recreational activities.

Motorists should be aware of the increased number of youngsters who will be using the streets, either walking or bicycling to places of recreational interest.

Playgrounds will be busy and one should be cautious while in the vicinity of these play areas.

But, it is not enough that motorists and adults be cautious and safety minded, the young people themselves should bear the brunt of being responsible as well.

At swimming and other recreational areas, play safe and enjoy the facilities, be aware of your capabilities and don't try to overdo, to the point of causing harm and injury to yourself or others.

Taking the little time needed to be cautious, can lead to a happy and enjoyable summer for all.

While on the subject of safety, we must offer a word of appreciation to the Ladies in Blue, who have been guarding over the youngsters to and from schools through the year.

The crossing guards have endured the rigors of the elements throughout the year in order to provide safe passage of those going to and from our schools, from kindergarten through the high school set.

They have earned their summer respite and we are sure they will be returning in September ready to assume their responsibilities again and greet their many friends.

They perform a most appreciative service to the town. Congratulations on another year of a job well done.

The Bazaar

An annual event as a sure indication of the prelude to the summer vacation season is about to take place in downtown Andover this weekend.

The annual sidewalk bazaar, one of the most popular events conducted by the Chamber of Commerce, is scheduled for Friday and Saturday in the business district.

It is a well planned event which provides something for everyone in the community.

Various participating organizations obtain revenues to continue their various charitable and civic work in Andover.

The merchants provide any number of items at bargain prices.

An old time carnival atmosphere prevails as amid the sales and refreshment tables, there is an abundance of entertainment features.

It's just a good time for all and highly recommended weekend entertainment in Andover.

Off The Top Of The Desk

Among some of the top jobs to have these warm days at the beginning of the summer is getting such places as Pumps Pond, Andover and Stevens Pond, North Andover ready for the season.

While most people adjust to meet the warm conditions, the staff members can place safety lines, floats, etc., in the water and get cooled off while they work.

At both recreational areas, activity was brisk this week as the crews ready for the influx anticipated after the final school bell this week.

That World Football Association should really be something to see.

Understand a western team picked up a player this week that was let go by the Boston Patriots seven years ago.

Gives some indication of what to expect.

There are some potential astronauts who will be getting out of school for the summer at the Middle School in North Andover this week.

A sixth grade group there visited the Museum of Science on a field trip last week and among the more popular of the exhibits was a replica of the space capsule.

Once for viewing only, the replica is now available for a check of the interior and many of the youngsters curled up inside ready to orbit the earth or head for the moon.

It may be summer and vacation time, but Andoverites can expect political activity to be as hot as the weather this year due to the campaign for the all-Andover representative seat.

The candidates for the Republican, Democrat and Independent nominations are already out and working, visiting various social functions and getting to meet the voters.

One candidate, Roger W. Collins, seeking the Republican nomination, has already had a campaign gathering at the Andover Country club during which he was the recipient of a long distance telephone call from Congressman Paul W. Cronin.

"A Tour of New England Wetlands" highlights the first of the special programs planned at the New England Aquarium for Friday evenings.

The Aquarium, which will now be open to the public every Friday evening until 9 p.m., will present a series of programs dealing with every facet of our aquatic environment.

Kicking off the Friday evening openings is an in-depth look at New England Wetlands - bogs and salt marshes - which are relatively misunderstood and, sometimes frightening, areas of our coastline.

Live narration, films and slides, will clear up some of the confusion surrounding these little studied areas. The program will be presented at 7 p.m. beginning Friday, June 21, through Friday, July 12.

The colorful and dramatic effects that nature provides in the earth's atmosphere is the subject of the new summer program in the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science.

"Technicolor Sky" cuts a wide swath over the earth, from the North to the South Pole and from the Caribbean Sea to New England. By taking an imaginary trip, the Planetarium is able to show the midnight sun, the southern constellations, and, in the Caribbean, the unusual "green flash" - an effect occurring at sunset under certain conditions.

Among other sights that may be new, even to astronomy buffs, are zodiacal light and gegenschein. Both are reflections of sunlight on dust particles and are best seen at equatorial latitudes. The zodiacal light appears at the horizon in a broad area which tapers upward. The gegenschein appears in a spot exactly opposite the sun.

The program includes identification of celestial objects visible at this time in New England's sky and an explanation of such familiar phenomena as rainbows and red sunsets, as well as the less often experienced hurricanes and tornadoes.

The cuisine and service last year was excellent and is expected to be maintained this year.

Another section of the state highway for Andover, is a pretty good piece of news to chronicle. With a mile more added to the Reading line piece, the worst part of the road between Andover and Boston will be made over so that a journey down that way will now be more enjoyable.

The contract for building the addition on the engine house was awarded to Hardy and Cole this week on its bid of $4,975, which was $25 less than the other contractors. The water works building is to be moved to its new location off North Main Street to make way for the addition.

Joseph Pitman, Arthur Moore, and Charles Fenelson spent last Saturday, June 17, in Charlestown and Boston.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick A. Wilson of the Free Church were honored by the parishioners and presented a purse of $250 in gold in tribute to the ten years of service to the church.

Quick work on the part of the fire department averted a disaster Monday morning at the Balmoral Spa. A worker on his way to employment in Lawrence spotted smoke coming from the basement and summoned the department to extinguish a stubborn fire there.

Rev. Francis J. Boland, O.H.C., son of Mrs. Ellen Boland of Orchard Street, received a Ph.D. degree at Catholic University this week.

The annual Junior reception at Pynchard High school Tuesday closed the school year for the upperclassmen. In charge of the affair were Paul Dyer, chairman; Eleanor Flint, Shirley McKee, Clare Richards, Frances Farrell, Reginald Whitcomb and Calvin Metcalf.

Rev. Charles W. Henry was honored at a reception this week honoring him for 10 years of faithful and fruitful service at Christ church.

Dwyer's orchestra provided music for the successful freshman dance at the high school planned by the committee composed of Annette Anderson, Edna Albers, Evelyn Miller, Malcolm Lundgren and Arthur Miller.

The 102 members of the junior high school ninth grade were turned over to High School Principal Eugene V. Lovely at the final assembly by Headmaster Milton H. Nelson. Miss Beatrice Stevens had charge of the preparation of the assembly.

A public hearing is scheduled for 10:15 a.m. Tuesday by the board of public works on Chapter 90 road improvements for Main Street from Elm and Central Streets to Shawshen.

The cougar is a cat, not a lion. Because of its size, our mountain "lion" has been considered dangerous, but the American Indians were not afraid of it, and the cowboys of South America called it man's friend, the Massachusetts Audubon Society tells us. The Andover Haven maintains a station wagon which is used for regular shopping trips for senior citizens and other emergency transportation as volunteer drivers are available. The station wagon was a gift to the Haven from the Service Club. It used to bear a sign to that effect, but it was stolen so many times, it no longer is displayed. But the gratitude of Andover's senior citizens who use the wagon is very great. A public thank you is due the Service Club.

Strawberry Picking Time Arrives

June is strawberry month in the Bay State, and most roadside farm markets are offering fresh, vine-ripened, juicy native strawberries this week, reports the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture (MDA). The short strawberry season -- usually only four to five weeks -- has begun about a week later than the average, but the crop is plentiful and delicious.

You can choose them in pint boxes off the shelves -- or you can go out and pick your own right in the fields. Nothing could be fresher than that, and you'll save a bit on the price, too. It's good family fun, and not very hard work, if you don't mind bending. Strawberries grow close to the ground.

Each year this news is greeted by some as an invitation to pick strawberries without charge. Not so, of course. When you visit a strawberry plantation, you'll be given boxes to fill, and you'll pay as you leave. Prices are posted, and may vary with the size of the berries you select.

If you choose to buy your native berries at a farm stand or produce counter, look for bright, overall sparkling red berries with bright green, unwilted caps. Pick up the box. If it leaves a ring on the shelf, it may not be quite fresh. Most strawberries in the supermarkets are from out of state.

Fresh strawberries should be used at once. If you must keep them a day or two, refrigerate them immediately, and keep them so until used.

For a list of growers who offer pick-your-own in the eastern part of the state, call 727-3018, or send a stamped, self-addressed envelope of MDA Div. of Markets, 100 Cambridge St., Boston, 02202.

One minor caution: most growers do not allow children under 12 in the fields.

And a final note: June is also Dairy Month, so you can celebrate by springing for a pint or so of fresh cream to go with the strawberries.

To Join In Research Program

The successful applicants who are to spend their summer participating in basic research at Roswell Park are being selected on the basis of about 1000 inquiries and applications originating in all parts of the United States. The program is supervised by several dozen Roswell Park staff members who are authorities in their respective fields.

Fresh Air Fund Seeks Volunteers

Would your family consider inviting an inner-city child into your home for a two-week summer vacation?

Since 1877, the Fresh Air Fund has sent poor youngsters, without regard to race, national origin or religion, from New York City to homes in the country. The aim is to give them a change of environment. If you have a two parent family, an extra bed, can afford to feed one more child for two weeks, and love children, you may apply for a boy or girl between the ages of 5 and 12 to be your guest.

For further information contact your local representative: Mrs. Deidre Epstein, 17 Francis St., North Reading.

Books, Etcetera Sale Set

Be sure to stop at the Library on Friday or Saturday, June 21 or 22 from 9:30 to 3:30.

The Friends of the Library will be holding their annual book sale, Books Etcetera on the steps, rain or shine. The Etcetera this year will be an excellent selection of recordings offered by the Library which it no longer circulates, including classical and semi-classical numbers and some much sought after children's music.

For the nostalgia buffs, the Library has thrown in some fox trots and 78s. Some prints will be available, and books on such diverse topics as Irish History, Sherlock Holmes, photography, Great Events in American History, and cartoons by Jaf, as well as materials for Civil Service Tests and manuals for the General Court and Senate of Massachusetts are just a few of the great bargains in addition to the items donated by the Friends and interested supporters of the Library.

There is still time to drop off any surplus reading material either hard cover of paperback, recordings or prints. Make it a family affair and get the children to assemble the books, paperbacks, records and puzzles they no longer want and leave them in the box in the Library foyer. Pick up service may be arranged by calling Mrs. John Driscoll, or items may be brought to the sale on June 21 or 22.

Special Program For Seniors

Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill will begin a program of study at the college-level for high school seniors in September.

Within the past few years it had become apparent to the college that many high school seniors are meeting their graduation requirements ahead of schedule. Other students have only minimal requirements to complete in their senior year. Both groups of students have a great deal of unstructured high school time which could be used in various educational and vocational endeavors not readily available at the high school level.

Therefore, Northern Essex will initiate a pilot program in September entitled, "A College Experience For High School Seniors." Qualified students, with the support of their high school teachers and/or guidance counselors and the approval of their high school principals may select a maximum of two courses at Northern Essex. Students may select any course they feel will benefit them educationally or culturally, or any course which interests them. Courses must be available at the college at an hour appropriate to the student's high school schedule. Course selection is made in consultation with a member of the college's Admissions staff and a Northern Essex counselor.

Transportation must be provided by the student. Tuition will be paid in accordance to the rate schedule for part-time attendance and no additional fees will be charged.

Credit earned for any course successfully completed will apply toward a Northern Essex degree. The decision to accept

The college will accept 20 high school seniors into the pilot program this fall.

Vacationing organ students, musicians and organ enthusiasts can be expected at this program in addition to many regular attendants from this eastern Massachusetts area.

At fifteen, he was the youngest organist to have performed on the Royal Albert Hall organ in London, and he became a Fellow of the Royal College of Organists at eighteen. In 1968, he toured Canada, Jamaica and the United States, giving a recital at the Church of the Immaculate Conception in Boston. In 1969 he won an organ scholarship to St. Catherine's College, Cambridge, where he read for an honors degree (B.A.) in music. At Cambridge, he began the study of conducting, which he hopes to make his career. He has his own orchestra and choral society in England.

Silent Film At Castle

The Hammond Castle, 80 Hesperus Avenue, Gloucester, will present Harry Langdon in the silent film Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, on Saturday, June 22, at 8 p.m. The silent film was made in 1926, and among the several script writers was Frank Capra. It is a wonderfully funny film

Harry and his father are among the last of the small time hand-made shoe manufacturers who are being put out of business by the mechanized competitors, particularly the Burton Shoe Company. When the villainous landlord threatens to re-possess the business, Harry set out to save it by entering a transcontinental walking contest with a $25,000 first prize sponsored by the rival Burton Company. To complicate matters Harry is in love with the Burton Poster Girl, who happens to be Mr. Burton's daughter (played by a youthful Joan Crawford). In spite of the constant distractions resulting from his romance, a brief imprisonment and the ravages of a tornado, Harry manages to win the race, save his father's business, and get the girl.

Harry's adventures in the course of the race are a delightful series of catastrophes; a situation under which he has plastered a hotel room with pictures of his girl and then has to share it with his resentful rival in the race; a cliff-ganging sequence reminiscent of Harold Lloyd's best moments; and the encounter with a devastating tornado. It all makes for an entertaining evening, with the film being accompanied on the great organ by well-known silent theatre organist, A. I. Winslow of Foxborough. For reservations for Saturday, June 22, to see Harry Langdon in Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, call the box office, 283-2080.

right for the amazin' Mets (12-0) in this game, as they erupted for 12 runs in the top of the first and coasted the remainder of the way.

Charlie Wiseman fired a two-hitter, whiffing seven and walking two, in his initial pitching assignment for the champs.

Chris O'Hara had yet another 4-for-4 evening including a triple. Sean Burt smashed three hits, one a double, while Pete Gravellese, Charlie Wiseman and Tim Derby socked two-baggers. Tom Fiske added to the attack with a pair of singles.

Defensive stalwarts for the Mets were 10-year-old shortstop Tom Fabiani, outfielder Dave Milne and centerfielder Sean Burt.

The lone hits off Wiseman were singles by Jon Pelletier and Dave Robinson.

Braves 3, Cards 2

Dave Barker's fielder's choice grounder scored Bill Crabtree from third with the winning run in the bottom of the fifth, as the Braves edged the Cards 3-2 and captured their second stright win.

Kenny Smith was the pitching victor, firing a three-hitter while striking out nine and walking only two.

Dave Swartz was the hard-luck losing chucker for the Cards. He tossed a four-hitter, fanning five and issuing five walks.

Brian Staid, John Merola, Bill Crabtree and Will Dufresne had singles for the Braves.

Doug Price beat out a pair of bunt singles for the Cards, and Jay Dilorio laced a solid single.

Cubs 8, Pirates 7

Trailing 5-1 in the fourth, the Cubs erupted for six runs in the bottom of the fifth inning and later broke a 7-7 tie in the last of the sixth to nip the Pirates, 8-7.

The key blow in the fifth was a three-run homer by Paul Farnham, his third circuit clout of the week, and he also ripped a double.

The winning run scored when Mark Winer singled, Paul Seeley reached on an error, and Jason Powell lashed a clutch RBI single.

Jon Brideau completed the Cubs' attack with a double, while defensive stars were catcher Farnham and second baseman Powell.

Winning hurler Kevin Grundy allowed five hits and fanned 11.

The Pirates had doubles by Mike Travis, Dave Morton and Dave Cullinan. Jim DiTroia and Joe Cahill stroked singles, while second baseman Bill Feeney and shortstop Travis were defensive stalwarts.

Brian Moriarty, the second of three Pirates' pitchers, took the loss.

Softball Game

The Andover Little League will stage a Managers and Coaches Softball doubleheader this Saturday at the Recreation Park.

The opening game at 1:30 p.m. matches the American Minor League skippers against the National Minor League skippers, and the 3 p.m. nightcap pits the American Major League skippers against the National Major League skippers.

A donation of 50 cents is requested from all fans, and refreshments will be served at the park.

Tower Hill rallied for three in its half of the third to tie it, before Andover went up 5-3 in the fourth only to have TH come back for a 6-5 lead in its portion of the fourth.

Brian Twomey lashed two hits and drove in three runs for Andover, while Danny Grams had two singles and two ribbies to lead the way.

Snake eggs are malleable and may grow one-third larger before hatching, the Massachusetts Audubon Society says. A snake never stops growing during its lifetime: it has no eyelids and no ears; it "hears" ground vibrations on its underside; the skin is dry and clean. Nine-tenths of all snake species are harmless.

Gym Hockey Program To Begin

Beginning next week the Andover-North Andover YMCA will conduct two summer gym hockey programs for boys of the two towns at the Andover YMCA building, 10 Brook St. Registrations are presently being accepted at the Andover office, which is open Monday through Friday 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Both programs will be conducted as either informal play periods or as formal leagues, dependent upon the number of enrollees. If leagues are formed members of winning teams will receive appropriate individual awards.

Both programs will start at 8:30 a.m. to avoid the heat of the day. On Wednesdays and Fridays boys going in grades 2-4 in the fall will play and on Tuesdays and Thursdays boys going into grades

5-7 will play. Both programs will last five weeks and include ten sessions.

During the recently concluded Spring Term the Andover-North Andover YMCA conducted six gym hockey programs involving 20 groups of boys and girls. A total of 177 individuals participated in 169 class sessions with a total attendance of 1,448. In addition to several class groups leagues were conducted at both the Andover and North Andover YMCA facilities by YMCA staff members Walter J. Kimball Sr. and Gary Green.

Largest of the programs with an enrollment of 61 boys in a six team league was conducted for boys in grades 4-6 on Saturday mornings at the Andover building. Individual members of the champion North Stars received awards including: Danial Burke, Kevin S. Donnelly, Thomas Hetley, Michael Lyons, Jeffrey Pitocchelli, Mike Reilly, Thomas H. Rizzo, Andy Shagoury, and Dennis Sheehan. Second place team was the Flames with the following award winners: Ernest Costello, Peter Crabree, Mike Donahue, Joseph Gleason, Scott James, Patrick O'Donoghue, Chris O'Reilly, Ernest Perry, Christopher Rizzo and Paul Thoday.

A league for boys in grades 6-9 at the Andover "Y" was won by the Flyers with award winners: Robert Burke, Steve Wilson, Brian Staid, Dan Bolduc, Don Stoddard, Chris Veillette; Dennis O'Meara won the sportsmanship award.

The Bruins won the League for boys in grades 1-3 conducted at North Andover YMCA Award winners were: William B. Duffy, Michael Morris, James Murphy, Kevin Redman, Daniel Regan.

Gains In Employment Are Noted

The regular spring expansion in the Massachusetts economy occurred during the month of April, according to John D. Crosier, Director of the Massachusetts Division of Employment Security. Total non-agricultural employment reached the highest level recorded for the month, posting an increase of 26,700 over March. This rise resulted from spring expansions in construction, trade, and service industries as well as the settlement of labor disputes in construction. Manufacturing employment remained virtually unchanged in the month of April as employment gains resulting from settlement of a labor dispute in printing and publishing and the recall of auto assembly workers were offset by new labor disputes in shipbuilding, electrical equipment, and paper.

Over the past twelve months, a 34,200 gain in nonagricultural employment was recorded. The largest increase - 23,500 jobs - was in the trade and services area. Durable goods manufacturers added 11,000 employees, while non-durable manufacturing dropped by 6,300 in a continuation of the long decline in this sector. Ordnance, instruments and Machinery accounted for 90 percent of the employment expansion in the durable goods sector.

The rise in employment over the year was limited by energy shortages. A sustained increase in manufacturing employment began in the summer of 1972 and continued nearly uninterrupted until the energy crisis in late 1973. At that time a major impact was experienced in the transportation equipment manufacturing, concentrated principally in the auto assembly industry. While prospects for the motor vehicle industry are now brightening, a labor dispute in shipbuilding is still retarding total employment in transportation equipment. Nevertheless, employment in other durable goods manufacturing gained by 2,500 since November 1973 despite the difficulties with energy.

Unemployment decreased seasonally in all the State's eight major metropolitan areas. The Worcester labor market area continues to be the only major area with an unemployment rate below 6 percent. After seasonal adjustments, unemployment for the state overall dropped from 7.8 percent in March to 7.7 percent in April.

Grains, consumed directly, provide 52 per cent of the world's food energy supply, and they occupy more than 70 per cent of the world's crop area. Out of the 1.2 billion tons produced each year, 70 million tons come from the U.S., the Massachusetts Audubon Society reports.

Dandelions extract about three times as much iron from the soil as any other plant, and they exhale ethylene gas which hinders the growth of neighboring plants, the Massachusetts Audubon Society says. In a compost, the dandelion's large quantities of iron and copper are used by other plants.

Teachers Have Not Refused Increase

Andover teachers have not refused a 7.6 per cent pay hike for next year, despite reports published elsewhere to the contrary.

The Andover Education has moved, however, to "go back to the table" next week, with a new negotiator, to discuss some of the "facts" of a recent factfinder's report which the teachers feel are "not fact."

That report, which recommends a 7.6 per cent pay hike for teachers and administrators, including increments, was accepted last week by the school committee. It has not been accepted by the AEA but neither, says AEA President Doug Walshe, has it been rejected.

The salary situation was turned over to the factfinder in January, after an AEA-school committee stalemate developed. At that point the committee was willing to give a 5.5 per cent increase, while the AEA was looking for a cost of living hike that varied up to 9.5 per cent.

While not ruling out possible other topics, Walshe said this week that the AEA is tending to go back to the table to discuss the comparisons with neighboring communities, on which the factfinder based the 7.6 per cent hike.

Walshe said the factfinder quoted an 8.5 per cent increase in Methuen and a seven per cent pay hike in North Andover, and recommended Andover in between at 7.6 per cent.

However, Walshe said, Methuen's 8.5 per cent does not include increments - those automatic steps by which a salary increases because of longevity or added schooling. North Andover's hike, Walshe said, is actually 7.5 per cent, not seven, and also does not include regular increments.

Andover's 7.6 per cent, on the other hand, does include increments.

Increments are normally not included in negotiations, he said, but were so this year as a means of being more fair to the people at the top of the scale, who no longer receive the regular increments.

Since the figure does include the increments, Walshe said, it means the teachers are actually getting an effective increase of four and five per cent. Because of the terms, however, those teachers who are no longer eligible for regular increments would receive the higher figure.

Walshe said that representing the AEA at Monday's meeting will be a new negotiator from the Massachusetts Teachers Association, Everett Lehey. Ed Marshall will continue to represent the School Committee, he said.

Summer Stars

Summer skywatchers this year will be treated to the rare sight of an occultation of Venus, as well as annual displays of meteor showers, nebulae, and the Summer Triangle of stars.

At the Charles Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science, a one-week-only program, "Stars of Summer," will tell Museum visitors when and where to look to take in these celestial events. The program will be presented June 18 to 24 every day and on Friday evenings.
